AGREEMENT AND PLEDGE

In considering my admissions to DAVAO DOCTORS COLLEGE, I bind myself to all existing rules and regulations, policies, and requirements by the School and by any competent agency of the Republic of the Philippines including the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), on matters involving admission and enrolment, the use of libraries, laboratories, services and facilities, changing or dropping of subjects, scholarships and scholastic standing, academic loads, and residence. I make the same pledge with respect to the School's handbook, bulletins, and prospectuses including their provisions.

I acknowledge that I have carefully observed and familiarized myself with the school facilities. Should I, in the future, desire any improvement or change, I will submit written suggestions to the Administration and desist from doing or contributing to any act or situation that would disrupt the school curriculum or schedule of classes. I also pledge to submit any grievance, protest, complaint or any appeal involving myself as a student to the appropriate administrative bodies. If I am not satisfied with the action or stand of the School, I shall appeal to the Commission on Higher Education or the Courts in accordance with the Rule of Law.

I specifically bind myself never to resort to, lead, or join any action, stratagem, or undertaking that employ slander, libel, threat, intimidation, or violence in the pursuit of or in campaigning for support or sympathy, for any such grievance, protest, complaint or any appeal.

I understand and agree that, as a student, it is my responsibility to pay all the school fees and other legally assessed charges. Therefore, I hereby grant the School the authority to hold on to any records until all my financial obligation have been paid. I shall also provide my own textbooks, workbooks and other learning aids.

I understand and agree that activities which are recognized and sanctioned by the school shall be provided with safety and security measures. However, Davao Doctors College, its Administrators and Faculty shall not be held liable for any circumstances beyond their control.

I am fully aware and agree that any violation of the terms of this agreement and pledge, or any willful and deliberate disregard of elementary rules of good behavior, decency and morality or any failure to disclose relevant facts, or deliberate intent to give misleading information in the admission form will be sufficient cause for immediate and final termination of standing as a regular student of the School or a denial of my future re-admission depending upon the nature and gravity of the offense.
